

I am most disappointed in the possibility that Sinclair Broadcasting may be allowed to air Stolen Honor days before the election. It is a partisan action by a station that is using free public airwairs designed for the public's interest. The media giants already control much of the information the masses have available for their discernment. To allow this amount of influence in an election would be an insult to Democracy.
you.